

Perfect picture!

Imagine what the rat's home looks like. Can you draw or describe what you have imagined?

Story starter!

- ▶ He just couldn't help himself: he had always been greedy.
- ▶ Up until this moment he had lived his life without ever been noticed by a human. Now, that was about to change...

Image by: Anna Tyurin

Question time!

- ▶ What do you think the rat is thinking at this exact moment?
- ▶ Imagine you are the rat. What would you do next?
- ▶ Who do you think the fruit is for?
- ▶ Who do you think it is that has discovered the rat? If you discovered him, what would you do?
- ▶ What is the best way for the rat to carry the fruit back to his home?
- ▶ If the rat had a son and a daughter, do you think he should let them go with him when he is gathering food?

Image by: Anna Tyurin

Sentence challenge!

- ▶ Can you write a compound sentence, where a colon separates two independent clauses?
- ▶ The first independent clause describes something and the second gives extra detail.
- ▶ E.g. The rat was greedy: he had never been able to control himself when it came to eating.

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help?

- ▶ The rat put his paws on the fruit. He looked up with his eyes and whiskers.

