

Job Application for a Roman Soldier

Pretend that you are a Roman citizen who would like to join the Roman Army as a legionary. Write a letter, applying for the job of legionary. Use the suggested outline below – include as much information as you can!

Name:

Address:

Age:

Nationality:

Marital Status:

Include a picture!

Dear Sir,

I am writing to ask if I can join the Roman army. I am interested in becoming a Roman soldier because...

(Here you should include all the good things about being a Roman soldier. What can you do? What benefits are there?)

I think I would be a good soldier because...

(Think about what kind of person would make a good soldier – what do you look like? Are you fit and healthy? What are your hobbies?)

I would also like to ask...

(Here you can ask any questions you have about the job, or mention any worries)

Yours faithfully,

.....

(Give yourself a Roman name – add ‘us’ to the end of your name to make yourself sound like a Roman!)