Week 10

15 June 2020

Hello Kites

This week we are going to recap some of our geography work from earlier this year.

Can you remember the different continents and oceans?

Which countries and capital cities can you name?

Our artist this week is Hokusai. He was Japanese and obsessed with Mount Fuji. Can you find out about Mount Fuji and locate it on a map?

Do the Tasks to support you with your writing.

I would like you to write a description of Danny Macaskill's journey. Think about the emotions. Use powerful language to show what he might be feeling and what is happening.

English : Reading

Continue reading stories in the Hopes and Dreams online book

Reading Comprehension—Growing Seeds

Can you remember what the VIPERS letters stand for?

Geography

Do the Geography Task sheet.

I want you to build on the learning we did in class about the continents and find out about other places in the world. This will help you to improve your knowledge of places and help you identify them on the map.

I have included some website links to help you with this work.

Science – To be completed over 2 weeks

Over the next few weeks, you will be completing the clean water challenge. Start by making cup of dirty water. Make it as dirty as you can! Try mixing some water with mud, stones, grass ... anything you want to make it dirty.

Your challenge is to try and make the water clear again by testing a variety of different filters. Test by filtering the dirty water through 3 different filters and see which makes the cleanest water. You could try a coffee filter, J-cloth, kitchen roll, sieve, gravel and sand or anything you can think of. Record your results in a table in your red books and for your conclusion, explain why you think your winning filter was best. Why was your worse filter not so effective? If you'd like some more tips about how to do this, watch the videos below:
